

Stelios Aggeloudis
Lawyer
Vice-President of the Hellenic Olympic Committee
Degree in Law and Public Law

Positions Held:

- Special Secretary of Sport in the Ministry of Culture
- General Secretary of Trade in the Ministry of Development
- President of the National Committee of E- Commerce
- Founder and President of the Olympic Museum in Thessaloniki
- President of the Greek Handball Federation
- Elected Member of the Hellenic Olympic Committee From 2001 up to the Present Day
- As Member of the Hellenic Olympic Committee, he founded the National Olympic Academy and served as the first President of its Board of Directors
- Management Consultant of the Athens 2004 OGOC, responsible for coordination of the Olympic Sports preparation
- Founder of the centre for the development of Culture and Adaptive Sport, Kappa 2000
- President and CEO of the Public Limited Company of the Port of Thessaloniki
- External Professor of the Public Administration Institute
- Professor at the Faculty for Officials of the Ministry of Health and Welfare

He has participated in competitive sailing in the Torneido Category.

He has frequently received awards from the Greek State, from the department of Sports and Culture and local authorities for his service to Greek Sport, among which special examples include:

The IOC's European Anti-Doping Award In 2009 For His Initiatives.

The IOC's European Fair Play Award In 2007 For His Actions To Prevent Violence In Sport.