

Dr Alexandros Kapodistrias

Director of National Sport Research Center

alekoskapodistrias@hotmail.com

STUDIES

A) Postgraduate studies

2003 - 2005: Doctor of Excellence in Sport Sociology from the Department of Sociology of Panteion University of Athens.

1998 - 2000: MASTER in History and Culture of Sport by DeMontfort University of Leicester, England.

B) University studies

1979 - 1983: BA of Excellence in Physical Education and Sport Science by the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki.

STUDIES, RESEARCHES, PUBLICATIONS, ARTICLES

2000: MA Dissertation: Olympism and Olympic Games, Athens 2004, A Critical Interpretation, De Montfort University Leicester, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Sports and Recreation History and Culture.

2003: Opportunistic Patriots : A History of Sport and Gymnastics in the 19th Century in Greece, DOKIMES magazine, Panteion University, Athens.

2005: Doctoral thesis: The Organization and Performance of the First Olympic Games in Athens 1896, Panteion University, Athens.

2005: Spectators and Violence in Football Matches, Research of the Center for Sport and Cultural Research, Panteion University, Athens.

2010: The problem of violence in stadiums, towards an alternative approach, Avgi newspaper, 7/3

2015: Physical Education Should Change, Avgi, 22/3

2015: Violence in football: The problem remains in England, Avgi, 12/4

2016: A way for the reorganization of professional football, Avgi, 13/3

2019: Smart City Vs Active City, Avgi, 8/5